Summary of data

The figures that follow show the number of postgraduate students at Monash from different perspectives; campus, faculty, gender, age, domestic or international, Indigenous, commencing or returning, attendance mode, attendance type, funding source and research or coursework postgraduates.

University-wide numbers

In both 2006 and 2007, 29% of students at Monash University were enrolled in a postgraduate degree.

Between 2006 and 2007, postgraduate numbers increased by 1.16% overall.

Campus

In 2006, 82% of postgraduates were situated on the Clayton and Caulfield campuses.

In 2007, 84% of postgraduates were situated on the Clayton and Caulfield campuses.

Postgraduate numbers more than doubled on the Malaysia campus.

Clayton, Caulfield and Parkville postgraduate numbers increased by 2.5%, 3.9% and 30% respectively while postgraduate numbers on the Peninsula, Gippsland and Berwick campuses decreased.

Faculty

In both 2006 and 2007, 68% of postgraduates were enrolled in either the Faculty of Business and Economics (30%), Medicine (20%) or Education (18%).

The Faculty of Information Technology had the largest decrease in postgraduate student numbers, with a 14.6% decline between 2006-2007.

The Faculty of Pharmacy had the largest increase in postgraduate student numbers, with a 30% increase between 2006-2007.

Course type

In 2006, 21% of the postgraduate population was enrolled in a higher degree by research (HDR) and 79% in a postgraduate coursework (PC) degree. In 2007, HDR enrolments comprised 22% and PC 78% of the postgraduate population.

Between 2006 and 2007, HDR numbers increased by 2.6% and PC numbers increased by 0.7%.

Course level

In both 2006 and 2007, the majority of the postgraduates enrolled in HDR, were enrolled in a PhD (76%). The majority of the postgraduates enrolled in PC, were enrolled in a Masters by Coursework (68% in 2006 and 70% in 2007).

Between 2006 and 2007, PhD enrolments increased by 3.6% and Masters by Coursework enrolments increased by 3%.

Commencing and returning

Between 2006 and 2007, the number of commencing HDR postgraduates decreased by 1.6%, while the number of returning HDR postgraduates increased by 4.6%.

The number of commencing PC postgraduates increased by 4.3%, while the number of returning PC postgraduates decreased by 2.7%.

Age

In both 2006 and 2007, the average age of a postgraduate was 32. The HDR average age was 35 and the PC average age was 31.

Domestic and international

In 2006, 30% of postgraduates were international students. In 2007 this figure had increased to 31.5%.

International postgraduates were mainly situated on the Clayton, Caulfield and Gippsland campuses:

In 2006

- 43% of postgraduates on the Caulfield campus were international
- 26% of postgraduates on the Gippsland campus were international
- 23% of postgraduates on the Clayton campus were international

In 2007

- 46% of postgraduates on the Caulfield campus were international
- 24% of postgraduates on the Gippsland campus were international
- 25% of postgraduates on the Clayton campus were international

International postgraduate numbers increased on Clayton and Caulfield campuses in both HDR and PC enrolments.

At Caulfield, international HDR numbers increased by 29%, although actual numbers were small.

Between 2006 and 2007, international HDR numbers increased overall by 17.6%.

There was an increase of international HDR numbers in each faculty with the largest percentage increase in Pharmacy 47.4% and Medicine 40.3%.

Between 2006 and 2007, international PC numbers increased overall by 4%.

The largest increase of 22.8% was in the Education Faculty. International PC numbers decreased in the faculties of Information Technology, Medicine and Pharmacy.

Funding source

- Between 2006 and 2007, the number of:
- RTS places allocated to HDRs increased by 6.7%
- international fee paying HDRs increased by 17.7%
- international fee paying PC students increased by 4.3%
- domestic fee paying PC students, both FEE-HELP and non FEE-HELP decreased by 2.3%
- CSP increased by 1.1%

Gender

In both 2006 and 2007 there were more female HDR and PC students than males.

Between 2006 and 2007 HDR female numbers increased by 5.6% while HDR male numbers decreased by 0.2%.

Between 2006 and 2007 PC female numbers increased by 2.8% while PC male numbers decreased by 2.3%

Attendance type
